Dear [Insert Name],

I would like to attend Trust 2020 in Los Angeles, California on April 15-17, 2020. A conference specifically for Agari customers, this event brings together cybersecurity leaders and practitioners in a collaborative environment. The schedule includes demonstrations of the latest Agari solutions, numerous educational sessions on how to protect our email environment, and several networking opportunities.

At a time where we are focused on staying secure, protecting our customers and employees, and how other companies have successfully implemented email security solutions. Attending Trust 2020 will help us explore new solutions so we can protect our organization and outpace our competition. Here are three initiatives where we could benefit:

- [Add Project or Initiative]
- [Add Project or Initiative]
- [Add Project or Initiative]

My goal is to return with new knowledge that can serve us for years to come. When we face a security challenge, something I learned or someone I met at Trust 2020 will be at the top of my mind.

By attending Trust 2020, I will:

- Learn from leading cybersecurity experts about the most pressing challenges today
- Identify how industry leaders are protecting their email environments from business email compromise and other advanced threats
- Meet with Agari experts to discuss how to get the most from our products
- Gain connections to call upon when troubleshooting and planning new initiatives

The event is free to attend and offers discounted hotel rooms for my lodging. I think you'll agree that this is a small investment when we consider the value I can bring back. Thank you for considering this request. I look forward to your reply.

Regards,
